CONCERT/CAMPUS BANDS

Meets Wednesday 7:00-9:00 p.m. in Meany Hall Room 268 (Concert Band) and School of Music Room 35 (Campus Band)

The Concert and Campus Bands are both non-auditioned ensembles with members comprised of current UW students (most of which are non-music majors), UW alumni, UW staff and Seattle area community members. Both ensembles play music of similar difficulty under the baton of conducting graduate students and perform one concert per quarter.

On the first day of rehearsal, members of both bands meet in Meany Hall 268 with their instruments to self-divide into the two ensembles, section by section so that the instrumentation of both ensembles are balanced. Rehearsing then begins right away after the bands part for their respective rooms.

Students registering for the course can do so before the first rehearsal if they know for certain which ensemble they would like to join, or can change their course code after the first rehearsal.

Concert Band: Wed, 7:00p-9:00p, Meany Hall 268; Campus Band: Wed, 7:00p-9:00p, School of Music 35

Assistants:

CHRISTOPHER V. MATHAKUL

GABRIEL VELASCO
Auditions:

No audition necessary; meet on first day of rehearsal in Meany Hall 268.

LATEST NEWS

AMERICAN PRIZE FOR CONDUCTING ALUMNA SHAYNA STAHL

Wind conducting alumna Shayna Stahl, who completed a DMA in conducting at the UW in 2019, has been awarded the 2018-19 American Prize in Conducting—band/wind ensemble (community division) for her work with the University of Washington Concert Band.

The University of Washington acknowledges the Coast Salish peoples of this land, the land which touches the shared waters of all tribes and bands within the Suquamish, Tulalip and Muckleshoot nations.