UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Musen 300/500

The top orchestral ensemble on campus, performing major symphonic literature, giving 6-7 concerts per year (an average of 2 per quarter).

This orchestra is made up of music majors and non majors alike. Seating auditions are held at the start of each academic year; seating rotates throughout the year. Open to both undergrads and graduate students.

Non music majors who may not be enrolled in lessons with faculty are welcome and are strongly encouraged to participate!

Led by Director of Orchestral Activities David Alexander Rahbee, the orchestra participates in ongoing collaborations with well known soloists, grammy award winning faculty including conductors Ludovic Morlot (Affiliate Professor of conducting) and Stephen Stubbs (Pacific MusicWorks), side-by-side concerts with Seattle Symphony and Pacific MusicWorks, a yearly performance in Benaroya Hall, as well as yearly collaborations with chorus. Also from time to time the orchestra is split up into smaller orchestras known as the UW Chamber Orchestra.

Rehearsals are Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:30 pm - 6:00 pm in Meany 268 (Friday rehearsals at 3:30 pm are held only on concert days).

Director:

DAVID ALEXANDER RAHBEE

Read more
UPCOMING EVENTS

- UW Symphony: Re-Imagination - Feb 7 - 7:30pm
- UW Symphony with Combined UW Choirs - Mar 13 - 7:30pm
- University Symphony with Craig Sheppard, piano - May 1 - 7:30pm
- UW Symphony & Concerto and Composition Competition Winners - Jun 5 - 7:30pm

Auditions:

Auditions for the University of Washington Symphony Orchestra are held at the start of each school year, however, enrollment is ongoing on a space-available basis, especially for string players. For information about the audition process, or to find out if there is space available, please write directly to Dr. Rahbee at darahbee@uw.edu.

LATEST NEWS

PASSAGES: PETER ERÖS, INTERNATIONALLY RENOWNED CONDUCTOR AND LONGTIME UW PROFESSOR

Faculty, staff, students and alumni of the School of Music grieve the passing of longtime UW Professor Peter Erös, 81, who died suddenly on Sept. 12 after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

MORLOT TO LEAD UW SYMPHONY IN BERLIOZ MOVEMENTS

Seattle Symphony Music Director (and UW Chair of Orchestral Conducting) Ludovic Morlot returns to the Meany mainstage on February 14, conducting the University Symphony in selections from Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique.

People Involved: Ludovic Morlot
Stephen
Stubbs