WINDS/ BRASS/ PERCUSSION FALL 2020 ENSEMBLE AUDITIONS

Sunday, September 20, 2020
Audition video submission deadline

Winds, Brass & Percussion auditions for the following ensembles:
Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, UW Symphony Orchestra & Campus Philharmonia Orchestra

The University of Washington instrumental ensemble program includes four large concert ensembles and over 300 student musicians from across campus—from freshmen to grad students, from anthropology to zoology majors.

The Wind Ensemble (MUSEN 301/501), Symphonic Band (MUSEN 302/502) are the auditioned concert band ensembles at the University of Washington, performing a repertoire of classic, contemporary and newly commissioned music. These groups offer a high level of musical challenge and opportunities for large group, chamber and one-on-a-part performance experiences. Membership in all groups is open to students from all schools and departments of the UW—over half of the musicians in these ensembles are from majors other than music! And remember, performance in a UW ensemble counts toward VLPA credit requirements.

Brass, woodwind and percussion auditions for Fall 2020 have moved to a video submission audition format for the 2020/21 school year.
