Music Minor

The School of Music offers a general minor in music that is open to everyone except music majors. In order to declare a minor, you first need to have a major declared. You can declare your Music Minor with your major department.

Minor Requirements

For the music minor, you must complete a minimum of 25 credits of music courses (MUSIC, MUSICP, MUHST, MUSEN, MUSAP, or MUSED prefixes). A maximum of 10 credits of these can be taken at the 100 level, with at least 15 credits at the 200 level or above. The following requirements must also be met:

- At least 4 credits from courses dealing with the elements of music, chosen from:
  MUSIC 116 - Elementary Music Theory I (2 cr)
  MUSIC 117 - Elementary Music Theory II (2 cr)
  MUSIC 113/119* - Pre-Core Theory and Ear-Training (4 cr total)
  MUSIC 120 - Survey of Music (5 cr)

- 5 credits from courses for non-majors that focus on a particular area of music:
  MUSIC 121 - The Orchestra (2 cr)
  MUSIC 122 - The Opera (2 cr)
  MUSIC 160 - American Folk Music (5 cr)
  MUSIC 162 - American Popular Song (5 cr)
  MUSIC 250* - World Music (3 cr)
  MUSIC 251, 252 - Music Cultures of the World (5 cr)
  MUSIC 131 - History of Jazz (5 cr)
  MUSIC 445 - Selected Topics Ethnomusicology (5 cr)

*You must get permission from the professor to register for these courses.

Transferring Credits for the Music Minor:

The School of Music can take a maximum of 10 transfer credits (including a maximum of 5 transfer credits in lessons and ensembles) to count toward the minor.

In order to get your transfer of credits evaluated, you will need to bring an official or unofficial transcript to the Advising Office (Music Building Room 116). Please make the following notes on the transcript:

1. Your student ID number
2. Your email address
3. Highlight the courses you are hoping to transfer and their equivalent course name or number.
