SUMMER STUDY

Summer Quarter at the School of Music invites an intensive approach to study and performance with a selection of for-credit course offerings. Please see the UW Time Schedule for a complete listing of summer courses.

In addition to courses offered for UW credit, the School of Music is host to a number of special learning opportunities, including workshops, symposiums, and institutes. A few of these are listed below. Please visit the links for more information.

CLASSICAL GUITAR SUMMER WORKSHOP

The 2020 Classical Guitar Summer Workshop is canceled due to public health advisories on social distancing and following University of Washington guidelines. Check back next year for 2021 Workshop details.

Details at UW Classical Guitar Intensive Summer Workshop
SMITHSONIAN WORKSHOP IN WORLD MUSIC PEDAGOGY

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the 12th annual (2020) University of Washington’s world music pedagogy five-day summer in-person course is postponed until summer 2021.

SMITHSONIAN WORLD MUSIC PEDAGOGY: TEACHING MUSIC/TEACHING CULTURE (WEBINAR)

Summer 2020: June 22-23
Details at World Music Pedagogy

SEATTLE PIANO INSTITUTE

The 2020 Seattle Piano Institute is canceled due to public health advisories on social distancing and following University of Washington guidelines. Check back next year for July 4-17, 2021 session details.

Details at Seattle Piano Institute

UW JAZZ WORKSHOP

The 2020 UW Jazz Workshop is canceled due to public health advisories on social distancing and following University of Washington guidelines.

Details at UW Jazz Workshop

CHAMBER MUSIC INSTITUTE

Join internationally renowned artists for a week of intensive exploration of the chamber music repertoire at the University of Washington School of Music.

Summer 2020: August 18 - 22
Details at UW Chamber Music Institute

The University of Washington acknowledges the Coast Salish peoples of this land, the land which touches the shared waters of all tribes and bands within the Suquamish, Tulalip and Muckleshoot nations.